RENEWALS.

Louis Tebbe, Peter Finnell,
Dr. Oliver McEuen, John Hoersch,

Henry Laker, Geo. Difalmi,
J. A. Cavanah, J. A. Hessel,
J. J. Elliott, J. E. Fox,
Wm. Richardson, P. J. Gladbach,
S. J. Nicholson, H. A. Potts,
S. P. Logan, E. O. Johnson.

H. A. Potts who spent the halcyon days of his youth in Keytesville and wore one gallus and had stone-bruises on his heel in the good old summer time, was here Wednesday in the interest of C. A. Kiger & Co., wholesale jewelers of Kansas City, for which firm he is now a popular and successful traveling salesman. Howard is an appreciative reader of the COURIER as is also his wife who used to make her home at Sweet Springs, Saline county. After reading the accounts of divorce suits in the COURIER they have determined to live together in peace and harmony and to never get mixed up in a divorce court and to be tolerant of each other's shortcomings. We see where they are right. It's better to grin and bear it than to frown disapproval in a plea for divorce.

Our fellow-townsmen, A. C. Phillips, was taken suddenly and severely ill Tuesday of gallstone and is still very much indisposed. We trust, however, that he will shortly be himself again.

A Fruitless Trip.

Sheriff S. J. Snaughnessy started Friday night for Amory, Miss., because of information received from the city marshal at that place to the effect that he captured Jasper Coleman, the young man wanted in this county for the murder of Rufus Cox at Dalton August 6, 1903.

At Coleman's first trial in the Chariton county circuit court he was found guilty and sentenced to 20 years in the penitentiary.

He appealed to the supreme court where the finding of the jury in the circuit court was reversed and the cause remanded.

He was tried the second time at the February, 1906, term of circuit court and was again found guilty, and sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of 12 years.

He again appealed to the supreme court and gave an appeal bond in the sum $2,500 with D. A. Ball, his attorney; A. W. Sullivan, Thos. J. Clarkson, Mrs. Sallie Coleman, W. A. Kraxberger, J. G. Payne, H. S. Freeman and J. S. Campbell as securities.

It was agreed between Coleman and his bondsmen that he was not to leave the county, pending his appeal to the supreme court, but he broke faith with his friends and skipped out the 22nd of last May.

It was hoped that the marshal at Amory, Miss., had captured him, but when Sheriff Snaughnessy reached there he found that the man the marshal had in custody did not look any more like Jasper Coleman than does the sheriff of this county himself, hence the trip to Amory was a fruitless one, and Coleman's bondsmen are still exceedingly anxious to know of his whereabouts.

Chariton Students at Columbia Organize.

Columbia, Mo., Oct. 8, 1906.
EDITOR COURIER,
Keytesville, Mo.

DEAR SIR:—

The students at Columbia from Chariton county have organized a county club and I think you would like to publish a communication from them. We have 29 members as follows:

Bartow, R. V. Price, Lacy
Bandy, A. T. Potts, Elizabeth
Bruner, James Reigelsberger, N. Y.
Colvin, G. E. Reigelsberger, Kate
Daily, W. E. Rucker, C. R.
Daily, H. S. Rucker, V.
Fawks, C. O. Seneker, B. S.
Fawks, M. E. Schrenk, O. J.
Fallor, Jessie Sasse, G. T.
Gray, R. C. Vater, John, Jr.
Hechler, C. H. Williamson, Lucy
Hechler, F. G. Zillman, Jefferson
Heptonstalt, A. C. Kelso, L. E. A.
McKittick, Roy McAlester, W. C.
McAdam, G. E.

Most of these are in or connected with the university. A few are attending the preparatory schools and colleges here. The club is preparing to meet all Chariton county people coming in on the excursion and will endeavor to show them the "variety." A committee of six, with appropriate badges, and as many others as can will meet the train.

In looking over the list of accredited schools I find there is not one in Chariton county. This ought not to be. A county with the wealth and push of ours should have an accredited high school in every incorporated village and town in the county.

L. E. A. KELSO,

John McMahon has sold his 80-acre farm, known as the Arnsperger place, near Salisbury, to Jos. H. Grigsby for $6,432, which is a little over $80 an acre. Mr. McMahon has moved to the H. C. Hyde place, north of Keytesville, that he bought some months since.

The Christian Church Revival Meeting.

The revival, that has been in progress at the Christian church for the past three weeks, closed Monday night. The church has been crowded every night, for the eloquence of Eld. Northcutt and the sweet singing of the Zerans drew the people in large numbers from country and town. Twenty-four confessions and removals of membership were made during this meeting. The simple, yet forcible, presentation of the gospel by Eld. Northcutt, the untiring efforts of the pastor, Eld. Wolfe, who, nobly aided by the members of his congregation, the splendid solos and duets by Mr. and Mrs. Zeran, and the large and appreciative attendance all combined to make the meeting a success. Mrs. Zeran's voice deserves special mention. Her low notes have all the fullness and rich quality of a contralto while her high notes soar up into lyric soprano.

The children's choir, trained by Mrs. Zeran, was a novel and interesting feature of the meeting. Eld. Northcutt and Mr. and Mrs. Zeran left on the midnight train Monday for Richmond, Ky., where they will hold a meeting. Keytesville feels greatly benefited by this remarkable series of meetings.

Baptismal services for those who joined the Christian church was performed Wednesday night.

Not Our Fault.

The COURIERs that were sent out of this office for Salisbury, Shannondale, Forest Green, Bynumville, Prairie Hill and Hamden Thursday night of last week did not reach their destination until Monday morning of this week.

An effort is being made by the postmaster at Salisbury to locate the blame and we hope he will succeed. Such long delay in transmitting mail so short a distance is inexcusable and somebody ought to be hauled over a bed of live coals about it.

We are not the man as it was not our fault.

Bryan to Be at Carrollton.

Hon. W. J. Bryan, the great philanthropist and undaunted Democratic leader, will speak at Carrollton Saturday afternoon, October 13, at 1 o'clock. Every citizen of Chariton county who possibly can do so should be present to listen to the words of wisdom and discussion of the political issues of the day as set forth by the distinguished Nebraskaan.

Notice to Delinquents.

We intend to send a statement October 15 to everyone of our subscribers whose subscription has expired, and we shall expect prompt payment in every case.

If you are unduly sensitive about being "dunned," the only way to avoid it is to see that your subscription is paid between now and the 15th inst.

If you fail to do this, then you should not feel offended and proceed to lacerate your linen and "cuss" the editor and say you "don't want his paper no how," all because he has asked you to pay your subscription.

Keep cool and cut a caper with your cash.

Money talks and it is the only language we can understand in conducting our business. It's the only thing that will buy news print, job stock, pay printers, etc. We can't get along without it and you can't afford to do without the Great Favorite Weekly.

Please let me hear from you if your subscription has expired.

All old subscribers who pay their subscription and send me one or more new subscribers, each of them will receive one of our beautiful calendars for 1907. The supply of these calendars is limited to 500 and if you want one of them you must act and act NOW.

We will also send calendars to clubs of two or more new subscribers.

Yours Truly,
C. P. VANDIVER,
Pub. COURIER.

Like a Letter From Home.

Dr. A. C. Johnson of New Murdock, Kas., but formerly of near Eccles, this county, in writing to renew his subscription says:

"You will find enclosed $1 which you will place to my credit as renewal to the COURIER for a year ahead. We are always glad to get the paper. It is like getting a letter from home. We have been away for 12 years, but still old Chariton county seems like home as we have many friends there.

With best regards to yourself and old friends, I remain,
yours truly,
A. C. JOHNSON."

Clyde H. Magruder of St. Louis and Miss Zou Anderson of Keytesville will be married Wednesday evening, October 24, at 9 o'clock at the First Baptist church in this city. An invitation is extended to everyone.

Adjudged Insane.

At a special or call term of the court Monday, at which all of the officers were present, on information filed by J. A. Harper of Triplett, and the testimony offered by J. C. Bowman, Dr. G. W. Hawkins and Dr. Isaiah Knott, Jr., Wm. D. Harper, a brother of J. A. Harper, was adjudged to be of unsound mind and was ordered conveyed to the state hospital for insane at Fulton as a county patient.

The unfortunate man was for several years an employe of the Wm. Barr Dry Goods Co. of St. Louis, and the mental and physical strain of his responsible position proved too much for him and he was attacked with a nervous affection, which now threatens to cause softening of the brain, and it is feared that his case is incurable.

Mr. Harper has a wife and two children living at Mexico, Mo., with her parents, he having been with his brother at Triplett for some time.

He was taken to Fulton Monday night by Dr. G. W. Hawkins and Deputy Sheriff F. M. Veatch.

The following fees were allowed in the case by the county court:

J. C. Bowman, witness fees and mileage, $3.

Dr. G. W. Hawkins, witness fees, $1; detailed medical statement, $5. Total, $6.

Dr. Isaiah Knott, Jr., witness fees, $1.

State hospital for insane No. 1 at Fulton, board of Wm. D. Harper for six months, $65.

W. H. Mayo of Salt Creek township is the newly elected secretary of the Chariton County Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Co. He will make a good one and will move to Mendon in the near future. E. S. Osgood of Mendon, who has filled the position of secretary to the entire satisfaction of all concerned, declined to serve the company further in that capacity. The report of the retiring secretary showed he affairs of the company to be in first-class condition.
